FINANCIAL

Military Saves:      What is Military Saves?

Military Saves, a component of the nonprofit America Saves and a partner in the Department of Defense's Financial Readiness Campaign, that seeks to motivate, support, and encourage military families to save money, reduce debt, and build wealth. The research-based campaign uses the principles of behavior economics and social marketing to change behavior. Military Saves encourages all servicemembers, their families, and civilian employees to take the Military Saves pledge and for organizations to promote savings year-round and during Military Saves Week.

Savers who take the pledge can opt to receive a monthly e-newsletter from Military Saves, as well as a quarterly e-newsletter from America Saves. Military Saves also works with FINRA Investor Education Foundation, the defense credit unions, military banks and other non-profit organizations to promote savings and debt reduction. <http://www.militarysaves.org>

Military Saves Event: Fort Devens Welcome Center, 26 February 2014 from 11:00 to 1300

Be Money Wise at Tax Time: 5 Ways to Spend Your Tax Refund Wisely: Tax season is slowly approaching and after the gifting holidays, you might be tempted to spend your entire refund on something you don't really need like a new wardrobe, the wide-screen TV you've been wanting, golf clubs, or another non-necessity. It's okay to spend a little for yourself, but being responsible about how you spend your refund now will be a huge help in the months to come. If you haven't always spent your refund wisely in past years, here are some tips to get you thinking wisely about how to spend your refund in 2014:

1. Use 30% of your refund to pay down debt. Using your refund to pay off high-interest debt, like credit cards, is a responsible way to utilize the extra money your refund check will bring. Paying off your debt could save you hundreds of dollars in interest that you would pay down the line. This is a great way to maximize your refund dollars.
2. Put 30% of your refund in an emergency savings account. From car maintenance and home improvements to medical emergencies, an inconvenient event is bound to come up in 2014, and you will want to be financially prepared. Most car repairs, home improvements, and medical procedures cost at least $250, even with insurance. Military Saves recommends saving at least $500 for emergencies, so consider using part of your refund to open or add to your emergency savings account.

3. Be strategic. Create a monthly spending plan and write down how you will spend your tax refund throughout the year. If you divide the amount of money in your tax refund over 12 months, it won't be as easy to splurge or spend your refund too quickly. Think of the new clothes you need for your growing toddler or teen, the braces your child may need, or paying for summer camp. Even if you allow yourself a spa massage every month, think of how much easier it would be to pay for it if you put money away for it now. Being strategic about how you will spend your money will make it easier to do it in the future.
4. Start a 'special occasion' or holiday fund. How many times has Valentine's Day, your anniversary, or your parent or child's birthday snuck up on you and you realize too late that you don't have the finances you need to pay for gifts? Special occasions are meant to be celebratory, so avoid bringing stress to them by taking a chunk of your tax refund and setting it aside to fund future special events.
5. Consider giving back. When you are working to make ends meet, the thought of putting money toward anything other than your own bills or savings account might be difficult. But think of the lesson it will teach your kids, and the feeling it will give you to donate $5-10 a month to a local food pantry or shelter. Not only will you be helping your community, you will give yourself a tax write-off for the next year.

Making the wise decision to strategically plan how you will spend your tax refund now will save you from potential financial headaches that can come later. Taking steps now before the tax season arrives will set in motion smart financial practices that will not only help you at tax season, but throughout the year.

VA Dental Insurance: VA is partnering with Delta Dental and MetLife to allow eligible Veterans, plus family members receiving care under the Civilian Health and Medical Program (CHAMPVA), to purchase affordable dental insurance beginning Nov. 15, VA officials announced today. More than 8 million Veterans who are enrolled in VA health care can choose to purchase one of the offered dental plans. This three-year pilot has been designed for Veterans with no dental coverage, or those eligible for VA dental care who would like to purchase additional coverage. Participation will not affect entitlement to VA dental services and treatment.

There are no eligibility limitations based on service-connected disability rating or enrollment priority assignment. People interested in participating may complete an application online through either Delta Dental, www.deltadentalvadip.org, or MetLife, www.metlife.com/vadip beginning Nov. 15. Coverage for this new dental insurance will begin Jan. 1, 2014, and will be available throughout the United States and its territories.

Also eligible for the new benefits are nearly 400,000 spouses and dependent children who are reimbursed for most medical expenses under VA's CHAMPVA program. Generally, CHAMPVA participants are spouses, survivors or dependent children of Veterans officially rated as "permanently and totally" disabled by a service-connected condition.

Historically VA's free dental services have gone to Veterans with dental problems connected to a medical condition that's officially certified as "service connected." Free dental services will continue for those Veterans.

For more information on VADIP, visit www.va.gov/healthbenefits/vadip, or contact Delta Dental at 1-855-370-3303 or MetLife at 1-888-310-1681.

Veterans who are not enrolled in the VA health care system can apply at any time by visiting www.va.gov/healthbenefits/enroll, calling 1-877-222-VETS (8387) or visiting their local VA health care facility.
